

Community Cultural Wealth

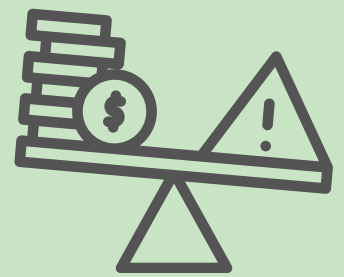

Navigational Capital

The ability to navigate social institutions empowers individuals to maneuver unsupportive or hostile environments.

About Navigational Capital:

Someone with this form of capital could be ambitious or a high achiever who navigates spaces with various internal and/or external barriers.

Navigational Capital looks like:

- ★ Good problem-solving skills
- ★ Persistence
- ★ Ability to multi-task well
- ★ Connects with others easily

To develop Navigational Capital:

- Join on- or off-campus organizations that align with interests & passions.
- Utilize available and accessible resources to aid in achieving academic and career goals (e.g., writing center, academic advising, career services, etc.).

